

ENROLLED ORDINANCE 158-120

AMEND WAUKESHA COUNTY CODE OF ORDINANCES TO ALLOW COUNTY ENFORCEMENT OF STATE OFFENSES

WHEREAS current Chapter 13 of the Waukesha County Code adopts several state statutes in order to allow law enforcement to write citations for violations of these statutes, and

WHEREAS adoption of state statutes in order to allow county ordinance citations or traffic tickets to be written allows forfeitures paid to be retained by the county, and

WHEREAS the Waukesha County District Attorney is in agreement with enforcement of these statutes by citation or ticket rather than by charging these offenses as crimes, and

WHEREAS, the current Code does not include adoption of state law regarding theft and certain administrative regulations governing motor vehicle equipment, motor carrier safety regulations and motor carrier safety.
